WITT is hosting a Young Women’s Conference on Friday, April 12th where females in grade 9 – 12 will have a chance to explore careers in the Trades and network with other young women with the same interests. This event takes place during the Skills Canada provincial competition so they will also get to watch the competitions taking place and participate in hands-on activities. This conference is free of charge. However, students are responsible for their transportation to and from Sask Polytechnic.
Students can go to www.saskpolytech.ca/WITT for more information and register for this event. There are only 40 spots available, and I believe it is first come, first accepted.

SEE STUDENT SERVICES OR GO ONLINE FOR THE UPCOMING SPOTLIGHT ON CAREERS:
- Law Enforcement
